

NOTICE

To all Political Parties and other interested parties:

With reference to Senate Electoral Tribunal Protest No. 001-16 (Tolentino Vs. De Lima) and pursuant to relevant resolutions of the Tribunal directed to various Voting Precincts, and Foreign Service Posts, to retain the various election-related materials related to the conduct of the May 2016 Senatorial Elections, the Philippine Embassy, Singapore, would like to inform the public of the following:

1. That following the instructions of the Senate Electoral Tribunal to retain such information and materials, said electoral materials have been kept at the premises of the Embassy of the Philippines, Singapore, 20 Nassim Road, Singapore 258395 since May 2016;
2. That the Embassy will move the said materials from 24 to 28 April 2017 to another location, within the same address.
3. That this transfer is being conducted without prejudice to the SET Protest No. 001-16.
4. That all interested political parties and observers are welcome to observe the transfer of the said materials on those days.

Thank you.
