GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR ACCREDITATION FOR MASS MEDIA, OBSERVERS AND MONITORS, AND CIVIL SOCIETY PARTNERS FOR OVERSEAS VOTING

The Philippine Embassy in Singapore informs the public of the requirements for accreditation of mass media entities, election observers or monitors and civil society partners in the conduct of overseas voting for the 2025 national elections overseas, pursuant to COMELEC Resolution 11082 dated 20 November 2024:

1. Duly accomplished Accreditation Application Form (Attached);
2. Two 2"x2" photographs (taken in the last six (6) months);
3. Endorsement Letter from the organization being represented;
4. For mass media entities, endorsement from the appropriate officer of the newspaper company, television or radio station, internet company, broadcast entity or film distributor which employs the applicant or has committed to air, distribute, or commission the work; and
5. In case of freelancers, a valid assignment letter from a bona fide media organization.

Please submit your application by email to singapore.pe@dfa.gov.ph, with subject "Mass Media Accreditation for Overseas Voting", by 05 April 2025.

Interested parties are encouraged to review COMELEC Resolution 11082 through this link for detailed information on the scope, qualifications, general requirements, rules of conduct and privileges.

Thank you.
